

“Bob Hess is the commanding Triton, King of the Sea, who is revered for his powers. He is also the father of Ariel. Hess rules the stage as well as the sea here. Looking like a hero from a Marvel movie, Hess’s powerful voice gives the king even more strength. Hess is such a marvelous actor that he takes this fairytale character and imbues him with Shakespearean gravitas.”

--Doug Sturdivant, DFW Center Stage, July 17, 2024